

For Amusements, Auction Sales, and Steamboats, see appropriate Heads.

We are indebted to Mr. Ringgold for a copy of the Westminster Review for April.

Should any carrier fail to deliver the Democrat promptly, word left at the office will remedy the neglect.

Charles D. Sheen has sold the Courier for Vander; the Democrat ditto. This ditto business is a part of his trade. We shall neither it out.

We regret to learn that the Hon. James Guthrie, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States, now home on a visit, is confined to his house on account of sickness.

The package of money belonging to Wurl, Adams & Co., from board of the steamer Southern Belle, has been found, and the thief arrested in New Orleans.

Spiritualism.—Rev. Mr. Gage will deliver his lecture on Spiritualism, at the Universalist Church, to-night, Tuesday, May 22, at 8 o'clock. Seats free.

The American Law Register.—The May number of this publication is before us. It is an excellent law journal, and should find a place in the library of every lawyer.

Dead Dogs.—Several dead dogs are reported to lie about in the streets in various parts of the city, especially the "Depository" on Market Street, above Wenzel.

Steam Fire Engine.—This engine has been removed from the wharf on Fifth street, where it was deposited, and taken to the foundry, where it will be kept until the city provides a decent place for it.

The Wesleyan University of Iowa has elected Dr. L. W. Burg, of New Albany, Indiana, President of the Institution. The New Albany Tribune says he will remove to his new field of labor in June.

Complaints.—We understand that Mr. E. R. Bristand intends to enter complaint against the various fire companies for throwing water on his house. It is damaging his house and his goods, and he intends it shall be stopped, if possible.

Mr. C. Matthews, who has just accepted the post of Stange Manager of Ury Lane Theatre, London, receives a salary of £150 per month. He once made cash that he could not live on less than £10,000 a year.

The Common Council of Albany has passed an ordinance imposing a fine of $10 for each case where martial music is played by a band accompanying military or other companies attending funerals on Sundays.

The Paris Flag, of Thursday, says it is rumored that the Democratic Central Committee for this district have tendered the nomination for Congress to Col. John A. Pratt, of Woodford.

Under the important heading of "Return from a Heretic" the Boston Transcript says: "Donald G. Mitchell, Mr. Marvel, has returned from Europe, the husband of a wife, the father of a baby."

Are a wife and baby a reverie?

Theatrical.—The performance of Bonaparte's last days is limited to tonight. To-night is the last night of the present company, when we are to have the "Adopted Child." This is the last night for the legitimate drama until the fall season opens.

Dr. Vaughan, proprietor of Blackwell's, Sarasapilla and Venereal, has just received an order for one hundred dozen bottles of this standard remedy to be shipped to Georgia. It is a searching and powerful agent in ridding the human system of old chronic affections.

Keeping the Sabbath.—In addition to the excitement on Corn Island, mentioned yesterday, there were almost any number of parties passing the day on the banks of classic Bourgas in fishing and shooting, from early in the morning until late in the evening.

Gabriel, Ravel and Troiloff.—This troupe of infatigable pantomimists are coming up on the Fashion, and will be here this morning. They have engaged the Theatre for one week, and we presume will open as soon as the season of the present company is out.

Robbery.—Mad, Mergat, of the German Theater, was robbed on Saturday night, of money, jewelry, etc., to the value of two hundred dollars. Mad, M., boards at the Washington Hotel, on the corner of Fourth and Water streets. No clue has as yet been obtained as to the perpetrator of the theft.

Thrilling Up.—The thundering of the intercession of First and Main streets is breaking up again. This place was repaired a few weeks ago, but it is gone again. The break in front of the Bank of Kentucky looks very much as if it too were up in the air.

A Narrow Escape.—Last evening about six o'clock, a little child, about three years old, on Brook street, between Market and Jefferson, fell into a cistern. The mother seeing her offspring in such imminent danger, sprang after it and catching the little one, clung fast by the pump, until assistance was given her. Both were considerably overcome and the child was greatly exhausted.

Change of Business.—We learn on good authority that quite a number of coffee-house keepers in the upper end of the city are making quick change in their business. They are converting their bar rooms into confectionery and fruit stores, ice cream saloons, and groceries. This is a good move, and one which will result in good to them and their neighbors.

Watch Stolen.—During the auction sale yesterday morning at the corner of Main and Brook streets, Mr. Daniel Eggert, intending to put his watch into his pocket, missed the mark, and let it slip through his pants to the ground, without perceiving it. A minute or two afterwards three men passed by, one of whom picked it up and stowed it away in his own pocket. The value of the watch was $100.

Gun Turnover.—The Kentucky boys were out with their engine yesterday afternoon at the corner of Main and Third streets. They put one stream, through a 1 1/2 inch nozzle, nearly to the top of Bastian's house. One of 1 inch was a beautiful stream, three-fourths and thirteen-sixteenths inch, were thrown upon the roof; and this we call good throwing for a machine with side brakes; but the next trial of the "steamer" will show all the hand engine into the shade.

Mr. Edward L. Pratt, for a long time "property man" of the National Theater, died yesterday after a painful and protracted illness. He had been engaged at the theater a long time, and made many warm friends.—(See Obit., 21st inst.)

Mr. Pratt was well known in Louisville. He was often here—always filling the part of "property man" during the life-time of James W. Bates.

Jeffersonville Railroad Election of Directors.—We present our readers this morning with the result of the election yesterday, for Directors in the Jeffersonville Railroad Company.

We hope the gentlemen will go to work—first in re-electing Mr. Zulauf, and then in giving such impetus to the management of the road, as will result to the general good. We suppose that the election of President will take place at the next meeting of the board.

RIVER AND WEATHER.

The river was at a stand last evening, with five feet one inch water in the canal, and three feet one inch in the falls—the same stage as on Sunday evening.

The weather has been quite pleasant today. About noon it began to cloud up and promise rain, but cleared up again before night.

The river has risen four inches. The weather is fine. There are six feet one inch water in the canal and falling. The weather is clear and mild.

The weather is fine. New Orleans, May 21.—Arrived—A. L. Shorrel. Departed—Fanny Bullitt, Grindale, Robert J. Ward, and Queen City.

Thanks to the clever and attentive officers of the steamer New Orleans packet, Alvin Adams after papers of the ship, and a copy of her manifest and memorandum.

Collision.—We learn that a collision occurred on Friday night about Cincinnati, between the steamer coming down, and the Marietta, going up. Not much damage done.

Report.—The United States Government has purchased the steamer Tuxedo for $20,000, and in preparation for the Ocean War, and one or two other boats, to carry coal and provisions to the fleet.
